Abstracts

SNTA was established on 4 November 1963 after the nationalisation of the Algerian tobacco and matches industries. At the end of the review period, the company had a workforce in excess of 4,500 employees working at 10 factories, a central printing plant, a transportation unit, a central quality control laboratory and a sales network covering the entire national territory of Algeria. SNTA manufactures and sells cigarettes, snuff, chewing tobacco, cigars and pipe tobacco. It exports its produce to...
