Abstracts

In 2023, soft drinks volume sales witnessed an ongoing recovery following negative results noted during the outbreak of COVID-19. Consumers continued to spend time outside the home, in foodservice outlets and leisure locations, and this behaviour contributed to a growing demand for soft drinks, driven by on-trade sales. Despite these positive results for the on-trade, off-trade volume sales stagnated. Inflation and the uncertain economy led to decreased disposable income while prices continued t...
