Abstracts

2022 has been a challenging year for soft drinks players in Hong Kong due to the emergence of the fifth wave of COVID-19 in the first half of the year, reducing footfall outside of the home. Large-scale exhibitions and sporting events were also cancelled, limiting potential consumption opportunities. Players relying on impulse purchases in offline channels such as supermarkets, convenience stores and vending machines, in addition to on-trade outlets, inevitably experienced declines in the first...
