Abstracts

The soft drinks market in Latin America is undergoing a major shift. Changing market conditions are damaging the growth prospects of sugary beverages, especially carbonates, which have long been the focus of the category in the region. Meanwhile, healthier and functional products are gaining in popularity, appealing to consumers who are increasingly looking for more from their beverages. Although carbonates are still growing, these emergent categories are now the keys to growth in the region.

Euromonitor International's Soft Drinks in Latin America Enter a New Era global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Soft Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on value and volume for both off trade and on trade.

Product coverage: Asian Speciality Drinks, Bottled Water, Carbonates, Concentrates, Juice, RTD Coffee, RTD Tea, Sports and Energy Drinks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
