Abstracts

Due to rising inflation and economic uncertainty in Latvia, off-trade volume sales of soft drinks declined in 2023. With rising prices, disposable incomes were reduced, leading many to adapt their buying habits, reducing purchases of non-essential items. This led to an overall off-trade volume decline for soft drinks, considered unessential by many. Despite lower prices, the deepest decline was noted in concentrates, which are suffering from the rising health and wellness trend. As such, product...
