Abstracts

2023 saw pressure on demand for soft drinks ease as the re-dollarisation of the Lebanese pound, rising remittances and buoyant inbound arrivals, spurred by returning expatriates, pushed volume growth. On-trade growth was especially strong as the hospitality sector continued to recover during the post-pandemic era. One key exception to these general trends is bottled water, a category which remains absolutely essential in a country where the tap water cannot be trusted to be safe for drinking.
