Abstracts

Total unit volumes saw a marked decline in 2020, after having recorded positive, albeit consistently slowing, growth over the earlier years of the review period. The foodservice channel registered a steep sales decline in 2020, although the retail channel was also seeing falling unit volumes. Foodservice establishments were closed from during lockdowns and, in addition, even when allowed to reopen, foodservice outlets were required to reduce their business hours for dine-in customers as well as...
