Abstracts

While there was a strong rebound in foodservice packaging unit volumes in the soft drinks industry in the Netherlands in 2021, it was not enough to offset the major decline seen in 2020, given the foodservice performance in 2021 was impacted by the ongoing necessity for periods of lockdown in this year, as well as other COVID-19 restrictions that still continued to disrupt consumers' lifestyles. As a result, while foodservice unit volumes of key pack types such as glass bottles, PET bottles and...
