Abstracts

This report analyses the soup landscape in Western Europe and highlights the key growth drivers. Hindered by dwindling interest in shelf stable and dehydrated soup, the category has struggled throughout the review period. Chilled soup, the emerging category within soup, has however been able to generate interest among consumers by offering natural and fresh alternatives. With a transition towards chilled options, soup is expected to reverse its downward trend.

Euromonitor International's Soup in Western Europe global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Meals, Dairy Products and Alternatives, Snacks, Staple Foods.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
