Abstracts

Soup will largely benefit from the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 overall, with both current value and volume sales rising notably. The main reason soup will perform well in 2020 is due to the lockdown restrictions that began being implemented on 17 March 2020. With many Bosnians having to work from home and children no longer at school, consumption opportunities increased have significantly. With soup not only being considered a food staple item in Bosnia and Herzegovina but also a quick and simple...
