Abstracts

Madrid and Bilbao are vibrant economic hubs in Spain, while Palma de Mallorca is set to record the highest population increase between 2022 and 2027. Madrid and Palma de Mallorca are set to lead in digital connectivity among cities. Palma de Mallorca is also expected to continue benefiting from the largest per capita consumer expenditure. However, Spanish cities will continue to face persistent challenges, including a global economic slowdown and rising inflationary pressures.

Euromonitor International's City Review reports analyse key trends and developments in 126 world's major cities. They provide localised city information in terms of economy, consumer lifestyles, housing and transport and city environment and offer valuable insights for strategic planning.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
