Abstracts

Despite administrative complexities, sales of spectacles in France are set to maintain steady growth in both volume and current value terms throughout 2023, although this is likely to vary across different regions and types of opticians – independent, mutualists or chains. Similar to the trend observed in 2022, the relatively small gap between volume and value growth is largely attributed to the anti-inflationary role of RAC 0 (Reste ? Charge 0), which essentially means zero out-of-pocket costs...
