Abstracts

The overall volume sales of spirits climbed in 2022. Although the volume sales through off-trade channels of almost all categories fell during the year, the total market volume ended on the positive side. Total volume sales were boosted by the growth seen through on-trade channels. At the same time, although most segments performed poorly in off-trade channels, the aggregated volume of sales of spirits through these retailers also increased in 2022. This good performance stemmed from the strong...
