Abstracts

Despite changes in lifestyle trends and premiumisation putting downward pressure on sales volumes for spirits, positive economic developments in Western Europe and strong growth for some spirits categories, such as English gin and liqueurs, reversed the downward trend seen at the beginning of the review period, with further expansion expected over the forecast period.

Euromonitor International's Spirits in Western Europe global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Spirits market in both the off-trade and the on-trade, it highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands by total volume, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Brandy and Cognac, Liqueurs, Other Spirits, Rum, Tequila (and Mezcal), Whiskies, White Spirits.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
