Abstracts

Sports drinks in Finland continues to see sales patterns normalise following the COVID-19 pandemic, with steady growth in the off-trade. In 2023, unit prices have continued to rise due to inflation and higher production costs, which has forced players to raise their competitive game. Sports drinks containing natural ingredients, lower sugar content and convenience in the form of easy to drink bottles are highly desirable among consumers in Finland. Functionality and flavour are also among the mo...
