Abstracts

Following a decline in sales due to the outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020, sports drinks continued to gain ground in 2023, posting increased off-trade volume and value sales. With no restrictions in place, Romanians have become more willing to engage in sports activities and consume related products. In addition, due to the outbreak of COVID-19, consumers have become more interested in health and wellness and are now aware of the benefits of products like sports drinks. Romanians now have a more info...
