Abstracts

Sports drinks registered a two-digit volume decline in 2017 for the fifth year in a row. Although not as large as the fall observed in 2016, product shortages and demand constraints continue to be the main factors behind the adverse performance of sport drinks. In general, Venezuelan households have been reducing their purchases of non-basic consumption goods as high inflation keeps eroding their purchasing power. In addition, the category is marketed towards athletes and consumers interested in...
