Abstracts

Sportswear value sales continued to rise in 2023, although much of this growth was driven by inflation and price increases. Consumers have made cut backs on sportswear, as in many other major categories, as disposable incomes are squeezed. Danish consumers are still keen to stay active and support their health, but investment in sportswear has decreased amid the cost of living crisis. During the COVID-19 pandemic, many consumers became less physically active as gyms and other sports facilities c...
