Abstracts

In 2023, after two years of strong growth fostered by the COVID-19 pandemic, which encouraged more locals to become active and drove demand for activewear, sportswear sales saw sales impacted as money-squeezed and insecure consumers limited their investments in the category. The slowdown was prompted by a challenging economic environment, characterised by a repeated increase in interest rates between April 2022 and June 2023, and high inflation leading to a significant decrease in the disposable...
