Abstracts

Sportswear experienced a double-digit current value decline in 2020 due to the pandemic. Consumers could not go out to enjoy sports or go to gatherings for yoga, for instance, due to home seclusion. However, in 2021 consumers were able to return to sports that did not take place in an enclosed room, and spending time outside where the risk of infection was small was considered acceptable by many consumers, driving growth in sports such as golf. Moving into 2022, society opened more generally; th...
