Abstracts

Inflation and declining purchasing power generally drive down demand for non-essential products. Nevertheless, demand for sportswear continued to increase in both 2022 and 2023, showing that there is still considerable room for growth in a context of high potential. A growing group of consumers has turned to sports (especially since the COVID-19 crisis), in line with the growing preoccupation with health and wellness, and because this pastime can be more affordable than others, such as going out...
