Abstracts

Cameroon was not as affected by the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine as many other countries. Rising global energy prices in 2022 gave a boost to government coffers and helped stabilise the economy. However, ongoing civil conflict, as well as widespread poverty, restrains growth in staple foods and this continues into 2023. With this background, staple foods is expected to register a moderate increase in constant value sales, but marginal volume growth.
