Abstracts

The sharp price growth in staple foods seen in 2022 has moderated in 2023. Retailers are trying to reduce further oscillations by introducing heavy discounts and gradual price changes. Whilst Croatian consumers remain extremely price sensitive due to budget constraints as a result of the challenging economic environment in the country, they do not generally cut back on staple food items. However, only marginal retail volume growth is recorded in 2023, and it is expected to take at least a year o...
