Abstracts

In 2023, the landscape of staple foods is marked by several key trends and factors. Volume growth is generally down as households try to buy less and save money due to squeezed incomes. This decline in volume growth is offset by value growth driven by high food inflation, which continues to be significant in 2023. This scenario leads consumers to seek cheaper products, including private label options. The categories that perform well reflect a trend of consumers making their own breakfast and lu...
