Abstracts

As noted in many countries around the world, consumers in the United Arab Emirates experienced weakened purchasing power in 2022 due to the impact of inflation on goods and services. However, in 2023, unlike in many other markets, consumers' purchasing behaviour started to normalise in the United Arab Emirates and returned to previous habits, supported by an influx of expatriates for work reasons now that travel restrictions have been removed.

Euromonitor International's Staple Foods in United Arab Emirates report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2018-2022, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in directly informs our forecasts to 2027, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
