Abstracts

After a very turbulent period for staple foods in 2022, with geopolitical changes in the region driving up prices on most grocery products, volume sales have picked up in 2023. The Uzbek economy has improved with retail prices in a number of categories slowing down or stabilising. In an effort to prevent further sharp price rises in food, the President of Uzbekistan announced customs benefits for imported food products. This initiative was aimed at reducing the impact of inflation on foods and c...
