Abstracts

Unlike other card payment transactions, store card transactions have not been boosted by the shift away from cash caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Instead, instalment plans and financing models for retail purchases played a growing role over the review period and have experienced another push after the peak of the pandemic, when retailers were trying to make up lost sales, despite damaged consumer income.

Euromonitor International's Store Card Transactions in Austria report establishes the size and structure of the market for ATMs cards, smart cards, credit cards, debit cards, charge cards, pre-paid cards and store cards. It looks at key players in the market (issuers and operators), number of cards in circulation, numbers transactions and value of transactions. It offers strategic analysis of sector forecasts and trends to watch.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
