Abstracts

Street stalls/kiosks have benefitted from the increasing demand for convenience food options in Switzerland. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are not only being eaten more irregularly, but also less and less at home. Instead, snacks in the form of in-between meals are often a quick replacement and are becoming increasingly important. With more people working between the office and home, or part-time in 2023, the consumption of snacks is increasing as people are travelling more and have more irregular...
