Abstracts

With the growing number of calorie-conscious consumers and demand for premium gifting, this has impacted manufacturers, pushing key players to diversify with the emergence of innovative products that have less sugar, portion control packaging and a focus on ingredients. Governments have focused on sugar tax and subsidy removals, which has led to a turning point in this category in the region. As a result, manufacturers are expected to explore new trends.

Euromonitor International's Sugar Confectionery in the Middle East and Africa global briefing offers an insight into the size and shape of the Packaged Food market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends and identifies the leading companies and brands. It also offers strategic analysis on driving packaged food industry trends like health and wellness, premiumisation, convenience and value-for-money and how those trends influence factors like new product developments, packaging innovations, retail distribution and retail pricing both historically and into the future.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Meals, Dairy Products and Alternatives, Snacks, Staple Foods.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
