Abstracts

Sun care was one of the hardest hit beauty and personal care categories by the COVID-19 crisis with sales plummeting in 2020. Not only were consumers confined to their homes for significant periods of time during the year, but ongoing restrictions on movement and travel meant that Filipinos had limited need for sun care, with short journeys to grocery retailers for essential purchases not deemed worthy of applying sun protection. The easing of restrictions supported a return to growth in 2021 wi...
