Abstracts

Super premium beauty and personal care suffered a notable current value decline in 2020 due to COVID-19, although the fall in sales was not as strong as in other personal luxury goods categories, and a return to growth was seen in 2021. Sales did not return to the level seen in 2019, but the category is on a very good path to achieve this in the near future. The growth of super premium beauty and personal care in 2021 looks relatively weak in comparison with other personal luxury categories. Thi...
