Abstracts

Following a steep decline in 2020, super premium beauty and personal care is poised to register healthy growth in total current value sales in 2021. Similarly, all product categories have seen volume sales rebound after having posted negative results in this respect the previous year. The turnaround reflects the robust recovery in the Dutch economy and the increase in consumer confidence that have ensued from the rollout of COVID-19 vaccines and the easing of public health restrictions that had...
