Abstracts

Super premium beauty and personal care suffered a double-digit decline in value sales in 2020, due to lockdowns and retail outlets being closed for parts of the year. In 2021, super premium beauty and personal care is expected to register current value growth again, though value sales are still expected to be lower than before the pandemic. With life still disrupted by the pandemic, and a large portion of people still working from home, there is not the same demand for products such as colour co...
