Abstracts

Super premium beauty and personal care saw a strong slowdown in its current value growth rate in 2020 compared with previous years. However, this was also the only personal luxury category which was able to maintain growth in this year, which was an achievement in itself. A return to slightly stronger growth was also seen in 2021. Although some consumers limited their spending on super premium colour cosmetics during the pandemic, they continued to spend on super premium skin care and other pers...
