Abstracts

Value sales through supermarkets continued to rise in 2022, with some consumers, encouraged by the easing of pandemic-related restrictions and greater mobility outside of the home, returning to physical stores to choose their own groceries rather than shop via e-commerce, with the latter recording declines. Nevertheless, habit persistence and confidence placing online orders, meant that value sales through grocery e-commerce remained significantly higher than pre-pandemic levels in 2022, therefo...

Euromonitor International's Supermarkets in Sweden report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
