Abstracts

The acquisition of 1,100 Albertsons outlets in 2006 greatly improved Supervalu Inc's market position, propelling the wholesaler and grocery retailer to third place in supermarkets. However, the chain continued to struggle with managing this broad base of stores. In 2012, the company announced plans for a strategic review of the business and in 2013 sold most of its retail division to a private equity investment group for US$3.3 billion. Led by Cerberus Capital Management, the investors financed...
