Abstracts

Street stalls/kiosks was among the hardest hit foodservice channels by pandemic-related lockdowns, due to prolonged home seclusion and social distancing measures. 2022 witnessed a marginal improvement but this not sufficient, with operators in the channel hoping for 2023 to help push their growth further along. However, 2023 turned out to be another challenging year for street stalls/kiosks with the rising cost of living resulting in consumers spending less money on takeaway options and increasi...
