Abstracts

In 2023, multi-purpose cleaners remained the largest segment in surface care and also registered the highest volume growth. With inflation still being high, consumers were price sensitive and appreciated the convenience and perceived value for money offered by multi-purpose cleaners. By opting for a single product, it can effectively replace several specialised cleaners. Though a much smaller product area, descalers also performed well in terms of volume growth, as consumers look to prolong the l...
