Abstracts

In 2023, greater time spent outside of the home following the easing of pandemic restrictions further dragged on demand for surface care in Germany, resulting in volume sales dipping below 2019 levels. On the other hand, value sales continued to rise during the year, influenced by the ongoing impact of inflation, which forced players to increase their retail prices. The cost of raw materials such as chemicals, along with packaging, became more expensive, forcing players to pass on these costs to...
