Abstracts

Although inflation remains an issue in 2023, consumers continued to indulge in sweet biscuits, along with fruit snacks and cereal bars. The reopening of the economy, including a return to in-person learning at schools and office work, has seen familiar patterns of consumption return. Impulse purchases while on the go have returned as they provide convenient options throughout the day/evening. Popular on-the-go snacks include cereal bars and cookies, with the former sometimes used as a breakfast...
