Abstracts

Sweet biscuits, the major category, has continued to post positive retail volume and current value growth during 2021. This performance owes most to players' ongoing development of the category, such as the offer of more interesting flavours and toppings. Filled biscuits registered the fastest growth in sweet biscuits in 2020. While the higher sales base is expected to lead to a small decline in retail volume terms and a modest increase in retail current value sales over 2021, novelties and inno...
