Abstracts

2023 has proven to be challenging for overall sweet biscuits, snack bars and fruit snacks in retail volume terms, with sales expected to decline compared with 2022. However, the category is set to see continued retail current value growth. As production costs have continued to stay high or moved even higher in 2023, many brands responded with price hikes to protect their profit margins. Brands had to proactively implement measures to adapt and adjust their pricing strategy, passing on the higher...
