Abstracts

Following impressive growth during the first half of the review period, chocolate spreads in Argentina saw retail volume sales contract in 2022. While the rate of decline has slowed, the category is poised to register another negative performance in this respect in 2023. The reversal in its fortunes is mainly explained by economic factors. Due to their non-essential status, these products are not included in the government's Precios Justos price control scheme, which has left them more exposed t...
