Abstracts

Retail sales of sweet spreads continued to see positive growth in volume terms in 2023, with chocolate spreads leading the way. Here, Nutella (Ferrero) was by far the dominant player, with smaller contributions from a host of private label alternatives, including those by Tesco, Spar and Lidl. Despite the fact that consumers remained budget conscious when it came to food purchases, the brand's value share remained stable during the year, due to its ability to match its price increases with those...
