Abstracts

The packaging unit volumes in sweet spreads recorded stronger growth in both 2020 and 2021 than they had been doing in the years immediately prior to the pandemic, despite some disruptions to the supply chain experienced in the key honey category during the first lockdown in 2020. The COVID-19 pandemic and measures introduced to curb the spread of the disease meant that agents were unable to collect honey from beekeepers, while many retail outlets were closed in the first quarter of 2020. As a r...
