Abstracts

Facing volume challenges, tea marketers are exploring added-value products to drive value sales in developed markets. Unilever and Starbucks's development in premium tea specialist outlets inspired others such as Twinings to enter this space. Premium consumption is very much a manufacturer-led tea movement, and format, packaging, occasion and variety are being actively explored.

Euromonitor International's Tea Global Corporate Strategy: Diversity and Tea Experience global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Hot Drinks market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success. The analysis can focus on both retail and foodservice.

Product coverage: Coffee, Other Hot Drinks, Tea.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
