Abstracts

After sales were badly hit by Coronavirus (COVID-19) in 2020, albeit more significantly in foodservice than retail, they recovered in 2021, with further positive growth expected over the forecast period. Green tea, which is important in Japan, but also in China, will continue to lead retail value sales, while other tea will continue to be dominated by China. Black tea will remain the predominant type in India, with the teabag format continuing to gain share, albeit from a low sales base.
