Abstracts

Kenya is one of the main global tea exporters and as a result, it is no surprise that Kenyans love their tea, in particular black tea, though in 2022, fruit/herbal tea registered the highest current value growth. Overall, though tea registered healthy current value growth, constant value growth was very low. The war in Ukraine led to an energy crisis, which in return led to high inflation. However, the full impact of the global oil price rises and other commodity price rises on domestic prices w...
