Abstracts

The resumption of cross-border trade with Sweden has continued to have a negative impact on sales of tea in Norway during 2023 with the category posting a steady decline in retail volume terms. The return of more consumers to the workplace, especially office workers, has also had a negative impact on off-trade volume sales of tea. While coffee is the most popular choice of hot drink in the workplace tea is also popular and is often paid for by the employer. Another impact of consumers returning...
