Abstracts

Tea bags continued to gain ground at the expense of loose tea at the retail and foodservice levels in Kenya in 2023. Visible across all categories and brand ranges, this trend was mainly reflective of increasing appreciation for the greater convenience of tea bags. Indeed, this attribute became even more appealing as the pace of life in the country picked up with the return to pre-pandemic routines. The fact that recent years have seen most producers steadily expand their portfolios in this area...
